

EXPO Program

Thursday 18th February, 2010—Clare Sports Club, Clare, South Australia

- 08:30 Registration
- 09:15 Welcome—Mark Branson, SPAA President
- 09:20 Word from our Gold sponsor Landmark
- 09:30 Turning precision into profit
Ian Delmenico, CropRite P/L
- 9:50 Soil moisture monitoring: How it will improve decision making
Leighton Wilksch, Landmark & Agbyte
- 10:10 Premium sponsor presentations
- MEA
- Sentek
- Apogee
- 10:40 Morning tea and View Sponsor Trade Exhibits
- 11:15 Premium sponsor presentations
- Topcon
- John Deere
- Case IH
- GPS ag
- Omnistar
- Trimble
- Landmark
- 12:40 Lunch and View Sponsor Trade Exhibition
- 13.30 Site Specific weed management (SSWM) – what is the potential now and what can we expect in the future.
Sam Trengove, Allan Mayfield Consulting
- 13:50 Better decisions about nitrogen in zones at sowing
Dr Ben Jones, Mallee Focus & Mallee Sustainable Farming Inc.
- 14:20 Do active sensors allow growers to make better decisions on crop management in cereals?
Nick Poole, Foundation Arable Research (FAR), New Zealand

EXPO Program

Thursday 18th February, 2010—Clare Sports Club, Clare, South Australia

- 14:50 Integrated Precision Viticulture
George Dridan, IPV
- 15:10 Grape and wine producers benefit from using spatial information
Tony Proffitt, AHA
- 15:30 Afternoon tea and View Sponsor Trade Exhibits
- 16:00 Farmers sharing experiences—questions and answers
- My journey with PA
Giuseppe Cuteri, Leeton
- My Precision Viticulture experience
Colin Hinze, Taylors Wines
- How precision agriculture works for me
Mr Richard Heath, Gunnedah
- 16:55 Close SPAA President

From 17:00 PA Connections

Sponsored by CBH Grain

